23 nationalities. This year, there will be 800 competitors in all, who can choose between an 11km 'leisure' circuit or a 13.5km professional circuit, coloured by a few extra competitive obstacles, not to mention the second race, which is always very fast and impressive, hosted within the Nautic Boat Show itself at the Porte de Versailles.

15 September, registration opens for the Nautic Paddle

Registration will open on 15 September at www.nauticpaddle.com. Over a fortnight, a draw will then designate the 800 participants who will take the start of the 9th edition of this extraordinary event in teams, among friends or individually. Are you up for a challenge? Then get ready to sign up and share in some marvellous moments on the River Seine on Sunday 9 December 2018 with the Nautic Paddle.

Nautic – International Paris Boat Show, is a show owned by the French Nautical Industries Federation (FIN), organised by Nautic Festival SA, a subsidiary of the FIN.
