D-80 until the start of the Nautic! Meantime, the ticket office has already opened its doors to the general public. And that's not the only good news. Indeed, the first 1,000 applicants to register will benefit from tickets costing just 9 euros.

The official Nautic 2018 ticket office is now open and available on the Show's website: Link here

"Entrance 1,000 Lucky Sailors" – The first 1,000 applicants will be able to benefit from 9-euro tickets (vs 17 euros at the venue)

The French Federations of Sailing, Waterskiing & Wakeboarding, Surfing, Canoeing and Rowing will be able to register on the Nautic website, identifying their licence number, and in return they'll receive a free e-invitation via email. Tickets will be available in October.

Holders of a boating licence acquired in 2018 will be able to register from October onwards on the Nautic website and in return they'll receive a free e-invitation via email

Free for children under 16 and for students up to 26 years of age following pre-registration on the Nautic website

Ready for boarding?
