Communiqué de presse - On course for the Nautic 2019: tickets are on sale!

23 septembre 2019 - 17h18

Imminent boarding for the largest indoor port in France. The ticket office is open for the Paris Boat Show, which will be held from 7 to 15 December at the Porte de Versailles. Just ten euros for the first 1,000 entry tickets together with lots of free offers! Up for a ride?

95,000m² of exhibition space and 800 exhibitors are preparing to play host to visitors passionate about on-the-water pleasures, for one of the biggest international boat shows moored at the heart of the French capital. The only event of its kind in Europe, it is offering the general public a nine-day cruise to navigate the grand universe of sailboats and motorboats, marine tourism and boardsports, fishing and every imaginable watersport. An unmissable meeting to explore the latest trends in equipment and technologies.

Prices* to suit every pocket...

The exceptional rate of €10 for the first 1,000 entries! (Instead of €17 on site).

Duo Ticket: preselling at €22.

Free entry for those who secured their boating licence in 2019.

Free entry for members of the French Sailing Federation (FFVoile) and the French Waterski and Wakeboard Federation (FFSNW), doubtless extending to other partner federations in the coming weeks.

Free entry for students (under 26 years of age).

Reduced rate: €14.

Group entry rate (upward of 10 persons): €10/pers.

Permanent entry (throughout the show): €50.
